WHEN YOUR WORK CHANGES

🔄 Less hours, redundancy or a new job can all affect your money.
A few quick thoughts to help you plan.

📉 Less hours or pay

Update your budget with your new income and see which costs can flex.

📞 Ask for help early

Talk to Work and Income about temporary financial support and temporary jobs you could apply for.

📋 Redundancy or restructure

Check your agreement for notice and redundancy pay.

💡 Try a side hustle

Use skills you already have: freelance admin, tutoring, cleaning or driving.

🕑 Part-time or casual job

Casual or part-time shifts bring money in while you keep looking for the right job.

💬 In any case

Keep a small buffer if you can, avoid new debt to cover the gap, and ask for free support early.

You Don't Have To Work This Out Alone
